Rice Market Report

Italy: The farmers being busy in the rice fields sowing the new crop and the rice mills being rather well covered with paddy, we can say that now everything is quiet, there is a sort of dead calm.

Parobiled rice mills have a lot of requests, most of them having their order books full until the end of June. This is not necessarily the case for white rice mills, for which requests are scattered, most often it is a matter of one-off needs on the prompt.

Availability of paddy: There is approx. 38% round paddy remaining compared to 42% last year. Concerning the Indica paddy there remains approx. 26% against 36% in 2023.

By-product prices remain stable.
