Rice Market Report

Italy: These past two weeks there has been few business made on the market, almost nothing... Therefor we have seen some small price's decrease. But most of the rice mills think that as soon as the big market's players will start to buy paddy again, the prices will go up again.

There are rumours that it is possible to purchase the paddy Indica at € 300 or € 330 for paddy Sole but when the rice mills have tried, this week, to buy at these prices they get turned down. These prices are nominal, not a single a farmer agrees to sell at those prices.

So far approximately 60% of paddy Round and paddy Indica were sold, it remains a 40% up to the new harvest. It is for this reason that rice mills do not really believe in further decreases on these rice and think that at the first purchase of major players prices will increase.
