

Rice Market Report

Italy: There is a new price increase on paddy: Omega +€50/ton and Terra €16/ton, the Arborio group +€50/ton and the Carnaroli types €25/ton

Farmers continue to ride the wave of last week, they no longer want to sell in the hope of getting more. Concerning Indica paddy, officially the price of paddy is listed at €600/mt, but at this price farmers do not sell paddy. They want €650/mt. As a result, some farmers who have current contracts with rice mills are starting to say that they no longer have any paddy, that unfortunately an employee charged the quantity to a customer by mistake, these kinds of excuses for not keeping their commitments and be able to sell these quantities on the market today at a higher price...

The weather seems to be stabilizing in Italy; if there are 15 days of good weather, all the fields could be sown.

Some increases on by-products should be noted this week.
