Rice Market Report

Italy: It's hard to buy the paddy round at €300/MT. Farmers at this price level are not interested. Especially that most of them who still have paddy are those who even refused to sell at a much higher level €400/MT... So they are in no hurry at all. They are capable to wait until early September before deciding to sell.

It is still a bit too early to tell, but some think that there will not be enough paddy round grain to reach the arrival of new harvest, to be followed up.

Long A paddy increased a little bit as well as the Baldo.

There is a strong demand for by-products but unfortunately the offer does not increase.

Weather for the new crop, it seems that for the moment it not warm enough. A few extra degrees would be welcome.
