

Rice Market Report

Italy: Very strange week, nobody really knows what prices are correct and what to offer at the level of the milled prices ... The milled prices below are really only INDICATIVE !!

Everyone seems to agree that farmers do not want to sell because they are not happy with current prices.

Take for example the Arborio paddy, at €450/mt they do not sell. Someone says they bought some for €470/mt and others for €500/mt.

For Baldo paddy the minimum price would be €420/mt but at this price they are not selling, so it is assumed that the price is €450/mt.

It appears that a large market player paid €350/mt for Indica paddy with a long-term payment in July. Already 25% less Indica is sown this year, these factors will not help lower the price of paddy...

Regarding the damage suffered because of the floods in the Vercelli Novara area, there are rumours, but no amount has been confirmed of the paddy lost.
