Rice Market Report

Italy: The markets reopened this week after two weeks of vacation. A large market player paid €370/MT for the Luna paddy with payment at 120 days. As a result, all farmers no longer want to sell long A at € 350/MT.

The Sole paddy is €380/MT, the Selenio paddy is always €450/MT.

On the 3rd December, all seedlings of the Terra variety have already been sold. Which means that next year there will be more Terra available. However, this variety which has a higher amylose rate (24) than other varieties of round grain rice (18-20) is not suitable for large manufacturers. This variety is not very popular in rice mills either because it quickly fouls machines.
