

Rice Market Report

Italy: There was a big increase on the Arborio and Carnaroli paddy of € 50/MT!

It's a tense market, farmers are not really willing to sell paddy. They prefer to wait and try to raise prices even further. It is therefore difficult for rice millers to offer prices over long periods of time because they would have to be sure they could buy the necessary paddy, which is not the case at the moment, and at fairly stable prices.

Take the example of the Sole paddy round grain, the minimum paddy price is officially €320/MT but that does not mean that rice millers have the opportunity to find and buy the desired quantities at this price. Some people would even have offered more €330-340/TM to the market of Vercelli and would have left without anything...

The by-products remain expensive too and are not so easy to find either.
