Rice Market Report

Italy: The markets have resumed and with the exception of Arborio and Nemesis, we can see price's decreases in all varieties.

Most of the rice mills are always looking for new business because they are far from running at full capacity....

As a result, we still have the same problem of price and availability of by-products ... because if the rice mills do not mill rice they do not get any by-products. Some mills have informed us that they have even seen the most beautiful type of broken such as Mezzagrana / Corpetto or Corpettone being sold at €400/MT. Sometimes they say that customers should buy directly round grain rice instead of broken rice.
