Rice Market Report

Italy: At Vercelli's market the farmers didn't wanted to sale anything, except of the most expensive rice: Carnaroli and Arborio/Volano. Now farmers are refusing to sale paddy round grain below the price of €320/MT (a big market player had to pay €320/MT otherwise he would have left the market without anything). Regarding Long grain A they want to get €300/MT just like for the Indica paddy. Rice mills have not yet agreed to pay € 300/MTfor long A, this explains why the price does not change in the official lists.

It is still raining in Italy, which starts to become a problem for the rice. It's not warm enough so it does not grow. No green sprout is visible in rice field, we only see the brown soil.... Today the crop has a delay of 15-20 days. However this delay can be recovered in July-August if it gets warm.

There is always a high demand for the by-products but they are very rare and hard to find
