Rice Market Report

Italy: The situation does not change much, the rice mills are always looking for new business, but as we all know, on long B Indica, they cannot be competitive with other origins, because the raw material is unfortunately too expensive. Given that farmers have planted less than the previous year, they are not in hurry to sell

At the market this morning, nobody has agreed to pay more than €310/MT for Indica paddy. But there are also farmers who refused to sell below €320/MT...

The paddy Selenio increased to €450/MT and even at this price, it is hard to find.

The paddy prices of all long A decreased from €10/Mt to €20/MT depending on the variety.

On the by-products we can notice a small decrease on brewery and rejects parboiled.
