Rice Market Report

Italy: Farmers meet almost every day in a meeting to discuss the situation of paddy that they can no longer sell. Their prices are too low and they can no longer earn a living. Wednesday 620 farmers were gathered and tonight in Vercelli there will be a new assembly. They created a real movement that they called "il dazio è tratto", their aim is simple, reintroduce customs duties.

Work in the fields to prepare the new crop began last week.

Although rice mills still have considerable difficulty in supplying by-products, prices have plummeted in recent weeks.
