Rice Market Report

Italy: The harvest is done. In 24 hours the market has become blocked. The farmers are not happy with the prices and do not want to sell anymore. As announced last week paddy St-Andrea has risen dramatically by €100 tm. Round rice have also increased.

The few samples of Selenio that have been seen show a 6% spotted, however we are only talking about a few samples for the moment, hopefully they are not representative of the whole crop.

In general rice mills agree that the quality will be worse than last year, which is not a surprise since it was unusually beautiful.

By-product prices remain stable. The biggest problem of rice mills is to place the rice husk, they can not find takers.
