

Rice Market Report

Italy: The major players in the market have all agreed to pay for the Indica paddy at €350/MT with a payment at the end of February 2020. Even under these conditions, it is not easy to buy paddy, some farmers refuse because the payment deadline is too long. They would say yes, but with payment in early January. They, therefore, prefer to wait and see how the situation develops.

Just like last week, the market remains difficult, the farmers not wanting to sell block the market. It is difficult for rice mills to make offers to their customers not knowing whether they will be able to buy paddy and especially at what price ...

The by-products are in high demand but since there is not much work there is little availability.
