

Rice Market Report

Italy: The farmers continue to work in the rice fields, they begin to complain about the rain. In Italy, there seems to be autumn weather, a rather cool end of May. In the rice fields sown first, you can see the green ears emerging from the ground.

Parobiled rice mills still have a lot of requests, most of them having their order books full until the end of June. The white rice mills are rather looking for work, the requests are scattered, most often it is a matter of one-off needs on the spot.

Availability of paddy: There is approx. 26% round paddy remaining compared to 32% last year. Concerning the Indica paddy there remains approx. 14% against 22% in 2023.

By-product prices remain stable.
