

Rice Market Report

Italy: There is still plenty of rice mill on vacation this week so there has not been much business done at the market. We notice a price reduce for the Paddy Arborio €320 with a yield of 56 or €330 with a yield of 60. The Carnaroli is also at the same prices.

Attention prices vary easily depending on who needs it and who wants absolutely to sell. Example for paddy Sole, if it is the farmer who seeks to sell, the rice mill will offer him €230-240/MT. If it is the rice mill that seeks to buy, the farmer will ask for €250. It is the same for the Indica, if it is the farmer who wants to sell the rice mill will offer him €280/MT. If it is the rice mill that wants to buy, the farmer will ask him €300.

For the new crop, since it was very hot in June and July in Italy they should already start harvesting the early rice (Indica, Luna, St-Andrea) around 15th September. Some even say they will already start on 1st September. Nevertheless, this heat and the lack of rain could have the effect that the rice has matured too quickly and that one will harvest approx. -10% compared to the previous year. The total seeded area of rice has declined by -1.5%. For the Centauro, the area seeded decreased by -22%.
