Rice Market Report

Italy: The paddy Carnorli is less expensive than the paddy Arborio right now, usually it's the contrary. Farmer's intention is to raise the price of paddy Arborio up to € 600/MT by the 20th November, let see if they will succeed.

With the rain the farmers can not harvest rice or very little. So they are not eager to sell nor stressing out rice mills to load the paddy. If the good weather returns in a week they should end the harvest.

It seems that we will have good quality rice this year so it will be difficult to find the by-products, and prices therefore have an upward trend.
