Rice Market Report

Italy: The paddy price for the long grain "A" decreased a bit. The explanation is simple; they are not highly sought at the moment. However only small quantities were sold. We do not know yet whether this decrease lasted.

For the round grain, the CENTAURO and the SOLE also decrease slightly, but be careful it must be said that farmers remain very reticent to sale; they sold only small quantities at these prices.

The Baldo continued its descent, again because of the fact that the Turkish market does not buy anything for months. There is still no demand on the Baldo.

The Indica paddy was also down a bit, there was little demand lately.

We must remain cautious because all these decreases have been seen for small quantities!
