Rice Market Report

Italy: There are not many new harvest batches on the market, we find some Carnaroli, Arborio/Volano, Indica and also a little bit of round. Nevertheless the round rice varieties will be the last one to be harvested so we will have to wait approx. two more weeks to get a high availability.

Below the prices made this week take into consideration that we are only at the beginning and that the most part of the new crop is still in the fields. Some prices have moved quickly, especially paddy Arborio and Carnaroli. Carnaroli eg started quite high €700/MT then went down gradually €650-€600 and finally €550. Which explain the rather large prices differences those last 2-3 weeks.

Unfortunately the surfaces sown final figures are still not available. We will keep you informed
