Rice Market Report

Italy: A small increase of €10/mt was carried over to the paddy Selenio and Sole, it seems that a major player in the market bought some late last week. A decrease of €5/mt for Baldo and its similar was reported on the official Vercelli list which is explained by the lack of interest in these varieties, being too expensive for the Turkish market and having few other buyers.

For the rest, the market remains stable the price levels do not really change. Some rice mills still offer more attractive prices to run the factories, for their part, the farmers are in the fields, busy sowing.

No improvement in by-products, prices remain high and still increasing.
