Rice Market Report

Italy: The harvest is going very slowly. There is not enough sun in Italy, the weather is overcast, and the nights are rather cold, which does not allow the rice to ripen.

Only the varieties long B, Arborio 388 and a little bit of Barone are harvested in small quantities. It seems that the bit of long B paddy harvested is sold before it even hits the market and maybe even at a higher price than € 350/mt.

Many rice mills are short of all types of paddy and farmers are showing no signs of selling enthusiasm.
